Our Low Cost Home Loan with nothing to hide!
The past 12 months have been a particularly big year in product development and enhancements to ensure we have a competitive suite of home and investment loans to offer our Members. I’m pleased to say that amongst our range we now have two packaged loan products, both packed with a host of features and benefits and no annual fee.

Late last year we launched our Qantas Points Home Loan Package which recently won a financial services innovation award from rating agency Canstar, something we’re very proud of. We’ve now enhanced this product even further offering a $0 annual fee and for a limited time a bonus offer when your loan is funded.

I believe it’s one of the best home loan packages on the market, so much so that I have a Qantas Points Home Loan Package myself and enjoy nothing more than seeing my Qantas Points grow each month.

For those who aren’t as driven by the earn of Qantas Points, we have our new ‘Low Cost Home Loan Package’ with an interest rate lower than the big banks and with zero bank fees. We hope you enjoy the fun we’ve had with this campaign – we certainly do have ‘nothing to hide!’.

You can read more about this offer and other exciting news in this edition.

In August, it will be 10 years at Qantas Credit Union, with very exciting times ahead for the organisation.

Who belongs to your family?
Our family has grown a bit recently. My partner Jamie and I have 5 kids between us, with the addition of our identical twin boys Austin & Beau Bridges born 13th June 2013. They are gorgeous!

What’s your favourite getaway destination?
I’m living in Manly now, so everywhere around there is pretty fantastic. My favourite beach is Shelly Beach, just south of Manly Beach.

Favourite recipe?
Arancini and lamb shanks. My beautiful partner is Italian, loves cooking and spoils me with choice!

Arancini Di Riso: Sicilian Rice Balls

INGREDIENTS

Risotto:
- 3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
- 2 cups Arborio rice
- ½ cup white wine
- 4 cups chicken stock
- Pinch of salt
- 1 egg

Filling:
- mozzarella, cut into 1/2” to 3/4” cubes
- marinara or bolognese sauce (optional)
- cooked peas (optional)

Coating:
- all-purpose flour
- 2 eggs, beaten
- breadcrumbs

To serve:
- more tomato sauce, (optional)
- basil leaves, for garnish

METHODS

1. Make the risotto by adding the rice to the heated oil in a large saute pan, and stirring quickly for one or two minutes. Quickly add the white wine while stirring. With the heat on medium high, begin adding the chicken stock a little at a time, and continuously stirring, until all the stock has been used and the rice is cooked, yet still al dente. Remove from heat and set aside to cool. Add an egg to the risotto and mix well, then refrigerate for a few hours, or overnight.

2. Place some rice in your hand and flatten. Place a piece of mozzarella, and/or a little tomato sauce (and peas, if using) in the center and close the rice around the filling and shape into a ball.

3. Roll the shaped arancini in flour, then roll in the beaten egg. Finally, roll in the breadcrumbs.

4. Heat some oil in a deep fryer until it is very hot. Add the arancini, and cook quickly, turning often.

5. Remove from oil and place on paper towel lined plate or tray. Serve plain, or place on tray with a little tomato sauce and garnish with basil.
Investing for your kids

Unlike the world we grew up in, children today are born into a far more competitive environment. It is more difficult to get a head start in life. It’s therefore not surprising that many parents and grandparents want to provide an investment nest egg to give their children and grandchildren a platform to build an independent life.

Putting the great Australian dream within reach

One financial hurdle confronting young people more than ever are the dramatic changes in the cost of housing in relation to income.

There are two aspects to home ownership that young people will need to deal with: having the savings for an initial deposit and having the earnings to qualify for and service a mortgage. While you may not be able to help with the latter, an investment plan begun in a child’s early years may well be the answer to the initial challenge of having a sufficient deposit to get the ball rolling.

The cost of a good education

The critical factor in this day and age is education. The better skilled our children are, the greater their ability will be to secure a better income. The cost of obtaining a tertiary education however, can be enormous and completing a university degree these days can easily accrue tens of thousands of dollars in HECS-HELP debt. HECS-HELP costs are dependent on the type of course taken.

Being able to fund this cost through an investment plan for your child can give them a massive head start in life by relieving them of a major financial burden.

Employ the power of compound interest

Being able to gift such large amounts of money to your children or grandchildren may seem daunting, but it can be very manageable if you employ the power of compound interest. By starting an investment program as early as possible in their life, you can get time on your side and allow the compounding effect to build a substantial sum, even if your monthly savings amount is a modest one.

Just $1,200 a year invested at just 5% interest will compound to almost $40,000 over a 20 year period. A regular contribution to an investment program can make it a reality, without breaking the budget.
